

Keyworth U3A – Listening to Music Programme for January to April 2015

Our sessions are held in the Centenary Lounge on alternate Wednesday afternoons. We sign in from 2 p.m. to be ready for a 2.15 start, and finish at 4.00. We ask for a donation of £1 at each session to cover the cost of hiring the room. All Keyworth U3A members are very welcome to join us. If you would like further information please contact me.

Bill Cooper 0115 8787060 billcooper270@ntlworld.com

7 January The viola Bill Cooper continues his survey of string instruments with the Cinderella of the section, the butt of many musical jokes, some of which you might hear! It was nonetheless the favoured instrument of Mozart, Schubert, Beethoven and Dvořák. (Postponed from 5 November)

21 January Some less familiar British composers - attractive but infrequently played music from baroque to contemporary – introduced by Alan Spooner.

4 February Transports of delight Sheila Cooper presents a programme of music about or connected with modes of transport.

18 February An afternoon with Mozart Introduced by John Stuckey

4 March An afternoon at the ballet Bill Cooper plays ballet music by French, American, Czech and Italian composers (Russian ballets were covered in a previous session).

18 March Some unjustly neglected piano concertos - e.g. by Dvorak, Tchaikovsky, Saint-Saens, and one or two British composers – presented by Alan Spooner.

1 April A Musical Miscellany Presented by Peter Stafford.

15 April These are a few of my favourite things A birthday selection by Bill Cooper.

29 April Members' choice Please bring along a CD or CDs, or simply come and listen. Variety guaranteed, always a popular and entertaining session.